THURSDAY MORNING, SEPT 3 1863

Mr Harding's Position.

We find the following letter in the Standard, and publish it that our readers may see the explanation given by Mr Harding, of the reports current in the State in regard to him. It will be observed that he denies that he said he would vote for Vallandigham, except in case the necessity was forced upon him of choosing between the traitor and an Abolitionist, and then he would prefer to support the former, though he seems to regard such a contingency as almost impossible. But if possible, he would prefer Vallandigham because if elected, he would be compelled to pursue the same course which Seymour has followed.

We do not agree with the Senator in his ideas as to the conduct of Vallandigham, and we supposed it was admitted by all, as it certainly is so stated in the President's letter, that the cause of arrest was not mere expression of opinion, but rather the discouragement of enlistments and the encouraging of desertion—overt acts necessarily weakening the power of the Government and giving aid and comfort to the rebellion. For this he richly deserved the severest punishment of treason and we cannot understand why any loyal man should feel the slightest sympathy for him, or what propriety there is in drawing comparisons between him and even extreme Abolitionists. If any of these last have done anything deserving death or banishment, let them be fairly punished, but till they have, it seems puerile to say that a boasting traitor, who defied, abused and to his utmost ability damaged the prosperity of the nation, is no worse than the fanatics, and is even to be preferred to them. With them, in any opinions or action at war with the Constitution in spirit or letter, we have no sympathy, but we certainly could more readily excuse and pardon their radical zeal, than the deliberate and persistent hostility to the Government displayed by a Northern rebel, whose constant efforts look only to the dismemberment of the country. They fight for the Union, madness and folly perhaps being mixed with their patriotism, he fights against it, determined to help its foes.

The letter of Mr Harding was addressed to an office holder at Olympia, who of course prefaces it with words of approbation, which coming from such a source, will have little weight with intelligent and patriotic men. Dr Henry makes the following statement which will surprise those who have read Mr Lincoln's Albany letter, as well as those who have confided in the professions of members of the Administration, which Henry intimates are not sincere.

The reasons assigned by the Senator for disapproving of the arrest, are very forcible if not conclusive, and it will be remembered in this connection, that the President in his reply to the Albany Committee of Democrats very clearly manifests his regret that the arrest was made. The opinions expressed by Mr Harding on the slavery question are those of many of the most ardent and zealous friends of the Administration and it is not positively certain that they are not the opinions of prominent members of the Administration itself.

Here is the letter:

SALEM, OGN, August 20, 1863

Dear Sir—Yours of 11th inst, is received to-day, and I hasten to answer.

Some time ago I was much surprised on learning that it was reported that I had said, in a private conversation, that if I were in Ohio I would vote for Mr Vallandigham for Governor. I disapprove of his whole course since the opening of the rebellion, and on all occasions when speaking of it, and in the conversation referred to, expressed my disapprobation, and usually in strong terms. One gentleman taking part in that conversation said he would, if in Ohio, vote for Mr V., and I just as distinctly said I would not; but I admitted that if I were called upon to vote for him, or an extreme abolitionist, who would prosecute the war against the seceded States after they were willing to return to their duty under the Constitution, to compel the abolition of slavery, I would prefer Vallandigham. And further said—"Because if he were Governor of Ohio, he would be compelled to pursue nearly the same course as the present Governor of New York, and would be in favor of allowing these States to return and control their own domestic policy under the Constitution of the United States—and that I believed they would be compelled—or coerced if you please—to return upon that condition, and the whole country restored to peace and harmony. But if the extreme abolition policy prevailed I saw no prospect of peace until the whole of the seceded States should be subjected to military despotism, if that were possible, which would in all probability overthrow the Federal Government and establish itself over the whole country."—Such was the conversation, and so it was understood and reported by those who heard it, and there is nothing in it I desire to change or modify. Contrary to my expectation, it grew less and less in volume and greater in significance until it comes down to He said if in Ohio he would vote for Vallandigham.

That a necessity for choosing between him or an abolitionist will ever occur, is too improbable that any preference for the one or the other amounts to nothing, and would not have been repeated here had it not been necessary to show the origin of the report that I was in favor of Mr V's election.

His arrest, imprisonment and banishment I do not approve, because I believe he had made all the arguments in favor of his erroneous views that he could make and they had been printed and widely scattered over the country and read by all who chose to read them. His banishment could not stay the force of his reasoning or turn the point of his sarcasm nor could it destroy his personal influence. The peculiar and objectionable time and manner of his arrest and the novel character of his sentence called forth the utmost activity of his friends in his defense—Justification directed public attention to him, and caused all he had said to be read and repented, with all the curiosity which martyrdom awakens and made a new side issue between the Administration and its opponents upon the rights of citizens in civil States to personal liberty, a subject upon which the people are always justly sensitive, and a right which they will not allow infringed without resentment, and thereby I believe the government has been weakened more than it could have been done by all the peace speeches that he could have made.—Yet while I do not approve of that and some other acts of the Administration I believe the President is honestly endeavoring to suppress rebellion and preserve the Union under the Constitution. In his efforts for that purpose he shall have my earnest support, and in giving it I shall not stop to find fault with slight or fancied errors, in such a way as to render the little support I am able to give embarrassing.

While he is constitutionally President, he must be obeyed and supported in the exercise of his constitutional authority. When he cannot be the last and best of the great Republican Governments will have failed.

I am truly yours,
B F HARDING
Hon A G HENRY, Olympia, W T

THE BEEF EMBARGO.—The Colonist says the steamer Enterprise arrived last week at Victoria, from the Sound, with 50 head of cattle and 200 sheep, in splendid order, taken on board at Port Townsend. As this importation may lead to a misconstruction regarding the recent embargo, we may mention that the stock was brought over under a special permit from the Collector of Customs at Port Angeles, to complete a contract entered into by Messrs Smith & Stone of Washington Territory, with Messrs J D Clark & Co of British Columbia. A representation having been made a short time since to Victor Smith that Messrs Smith & Stone were under a heavy bond for the fulfillment of their contract and that the restriction if enforced in their case would cause them to be severe losers he intimated that if the parties produced their papers, supported by an opinion from a respectable legal practitioner, he should not oppose the exportation. The Enterprise accordingly proceeded to Port Angeles on Thursday afternoon, and the Collector having been satisfied as to the genuineness of the requisition, at once sanctioned the shipment, and gave directions to the officer residing at Port Townsend to grant the necessary clearance. The cattle and sheep were accordingly taken on board the Enterprise yesterday morning. We are accustomed to read and hear so much in condemnation of Collector Smith, that it is quite refreshing to have the opportunity of recording this little act of consideration and friendly courtesy on his part."

The same paper says "that the embargo is not enforced at San Francisco. On the 20th of July last the bark Architect cleared from the Custom House there with four horses, which have safely arrived at Victoria." According to Astoria logic such an act on the part of Collector Low, is a proof of his subserviency to British interest. According to good sense, it is a proof that he is not a fool or a demagogue.

CHEERING WORDS.—The London Star, of July 20th, edited and published by men to whom the crazy Collector at Astoria would not sell bran or beans—has the following congratulations upon the recent victories. They will meet with a cordial response from every patriotic heart, which is not stupefied or stultified by conceit or folly:

With deep, devout and grateful joy we publish to-day the news of victories that are the heralds of a happy peace. Seldom, if ever, has it been the lot of the journalist to announce on the same sheet two events of such transcendant importance as the fall of Vicksburg, and the retreat of Lee. The glorious Fourth of July has indeed received a glorious celebration. In tens of thousands of Northern homes the birthday of American freedom was being kept with mingled hope and fear—with blended memories of joy and sadness, of pride and humiliation. Throughout New England and the populous Middle States, and the vast Northwest—in cities that date back from our own heroic seventeenth century, and in cities that have sprung up within the memory of living men upon the site of world old forests or on virgin prairies—around the Pilgrim Rock and on the gold-sown strands of the Pacific—citizens of the Great Republic spake with tremulous lips as beneath the shade of laurels twined with cypress, of their fathers' legacy of freedom, and the deadly struggle in which their own brothers and sons were wrestling for the preservation of that glorious heritage—the Union sacred alike to liberty and law.

They knew not that on that very day the God of their country and their sires—the God of justice and mercy—had vouchsafed to the commonwealth a great deliverance. The broken railways and telegraph lines delayed the happy tidings that on that same Fourth of July the flag of the Union had been exalted over the obstinate stronghold of rebellious slavemasters, and the sun had risen upon the greatest of their hosts in dire retreat.

Whatever remains to be done or suffered—whatever battles to be fought or fortresses to besiege—the armies and people of the Union may at least rejoice, with unutterable gladness and thanksgiving, that the boastful progress of the enemy has been turned back, and the very chiefest of his defenses broken down.

GREEK FIRE.—This combustible, used originally by the Greeks in war, was prepared in some manner not yet made public, though the ingredients were supposed to be asphaltum, sulphur and nitre. In modern times it has also been a secret, and the parties who furnish it to the Government have reserved the privilege of keeping its mode of composition to themselves. When projected against any substance, it ignites and burns with intense and inextinguishable fury. It is one of the most destructive and fearful agents that can be used, and its terrible effects at Charleston naturally provoke the disgust and wrath of Beauregard, who doubtless would prefer a shower of rose-water to a storm of Greek fire.

GOLD FROM VICTORIA.—The British Colonist reports that the Sierra Nevada on her last trip carried $101,128 [illegible] to San Francisco shipped by brokers, and that about $70,000 was in the hands of passengers, making in all over $220,000—the largest shipment of the season. The same paper states, that the total shipments for the month of August by banking institutions amounted to $114,162.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE DAILY OREGONIAN

LATER FROM THE EAST.

The Stars and Stripes wave over Sumter and Wagner.

NEW YORK, August 28.—A Morris Island letter of the 24th inst to the Herald says seven [illegible] ago [illegible] from Fort Moultrie [illegible] of two [illegible] succeeded in eluding our vessels and got into Charleston [illegible] they were discovered by [illegible] and fired upon but the night was dark and misty that they got quickly out of sight.

On the 23d, Gilmore [illegible] Lieut Sel[illegible] commanding the marsh batteries to open with his rifle guns on Charleston during the night. Between [illegible] and two o'clock on Saturday morning fifteen shells of [illegible] were [illegible] over the James Island batteries across the harbor, and into the city. The effect of this demonstration was perfectly satisfactory to [illegible]. Perhaps Beauregard had considered Gilmore's threat to shell Charleston at a distance of four miles too preposterous to demand attention. Beauregard claimed that the city had not been evacuated by all non combatants. There was a most stupendous panic, and universal confusion. [illegible] was discovered by the light of burning buildings, the bells were rung from every steeple, and a general screaming of [illegible] whistles was heard.

The same correspondent says that a few days more delay must ruin the whole [illegible]. Sumter was reduced because it was in the way of the navy, but Dahlgren has not yet made an advance towards completing the work which Gilmore so gloriously began. The army is unable to do any more. Gilmore has performed his part of the contract, and now it remains for the navy to enter upon and perform its part. A week's delay may enable the rebels to replace Sumter by [illegible] of new batteries within the harbor which would make the capture of Charleston as far off as before the first gun was fired. There was a deep feeling and fear growing onshore that the fruit of our glorious triumph will be permitted to slip from our grasp by the inexplicable procrastination of the navy.

Wagner still holds out the best. The army is gradually approaching it.

NEW YORK, Aug 28.—The Herald's dispatches from Washington say that at an interview between Gen Meredith and Ould the rebel Commissioner at City Point on the 23d, some points in dispute were arranged but arrangements for the exchange of prisoners (paroled) were not completed. Negotiations still pending. The imprisonment of Morgan and his officers in the Ohio penitentiary has brought the rebels to terms. It has been agreed that Col Straight and others, so long similarly imprisoned, shall be placed on the same footing with other prisoners of war. This will probably be responded to by the restoration of Morgan and his officers to a similar status. Gen Neal Dow has been turned over to the civil authorities. A rebel Brigadier General will immediately be placed in close confinement as hostage for him.

F L Olmstead, Secretary of the Sanitary Commission, has been appointed Superintendent of the Mariposa Mining Company, of California.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 29.—It is stated to-day that the Almaden Quicksilver Mining Company being apprehensive of further troubles from the Administration have sold out their mines to Sweet, Butterworth & Stanton, for $1,700,000.

LATEST.

The following dispatch was received by private parties in Yreka, from which it appears that the old flag now floats in triumph over the doomed city. We shall probably have full particulars to-day.

LETTER FROM COL MAURY.—The following interesting letter from Col R F Maury to Gov Wallace of Idaho Territory is taken from the Golden Age. It will be remembered that Col Maury was sent some time ago on an expedition against the Snake Indians, toward Boise.

CAMP No 33, CAMAS PRAIRIE, I T,
August 7, 1863

Governor—Presuming that the movements of my command, as well as those of the Indians in this part of Idaho will be of interest, I avail myself of an express going in to Lapwai to inform you that we arrived in this valley about one hundred miles east of the new military post on Boise river on the first of this month, the command being in good health and the animals of the expedition in excellent condition, having had without exception since our departure from Fort Lapwai first rate grass and water.

This is a very handsome valley some thirty or forty miles in length by from eight to twelve in width—fertile and covered with a luxuriant grass—well watered, with timber, though not abundant, in the mountains. It is evidently the resort during the spring and summer of most of the Indians that live between the mouth of Boise river and Fort Hall, everything on which they depend for their living abounding. It is large enough for a county and capable of sustaining a large population and beyond doubt mines will be developed in the mountains on either side, thus rendering its settlement at an early day almost certain. Already mines on Boise river are being worked within twenty five miles.

The head waters of Salmon river are but a short distance to the North. Prospectors who have tried the small streams flowing into the valley inform me that they had no difficulty finding the color. These are men who, anticipating the establishment of a military post in the valley, came out for the purpose of settling, but in the absence of such establishment have abandoned, at least for the present, the idea of making improvements this summer.

The Indians left the valley apparently about three or four weeks before our arrival. Most of them have gone east, the immigrants say, for the purpose of effecting a treaty with Gen Conner. Others, no doubt the worst class, have gone to the south side of Snake river. Scouts have been sent out in every direction but have failed to discover Indians or any very late sign in our vicinity.

We have met, thus far, about one hundred wagons, containing families. They are in good health and well supplied. From information obtained from them I am inclined to the opinion that the immigration to this part of Idaho and to Washington and Oregon will be small—a great many go to the Beaver Head country but most of them to California.

I will leave with a part of my command in a few days for Fort Hall. It I am told the Indians said to be collected. I will advise you of their disposition.

So far as I have traveled on this route all the necessaries for stock exist in the greatest abundance—pure water, roads comparatively free from dust, and in every respect far preferable to the old road on the south side of Snake river.

I have the honor to remain,
Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
R F MAURY,
Col 1st O C Commanding

RECONSTRUCTION IN NORTH CAROLINA.—A late number of the Wilmington (N C) Journal has an editorial article in denunciation of the peace party in that State in which it holds the following significant language:

We have had enough of angry discussions in North Carolina—enough of party invective [illegible]. We deprecate, we avoid them, we appeal to the people on the merits of the question before us and [illegible]. We wish to be strictly parliamentary in all we say. We wish to make no attacks upon individuals. We see movements on foot. We examine and characterize such movements. We tell our people candidly and plainly that we know there is an organized movement on foot to control the Congressional elections in all the Districts. We say to all such that if this movement means anything, it means reconstruction—submission. We warn the people at home. We warn the people in camp that such is its nature, such its tendency, such will be its result if successful.

WEALTH OF WILLIAMS CREEK.—A person in Williams Creek, well informed upon mining matters, gives it as his opinion, based upon calculations which he has made [illegible] that the average gross yield of gold per diem on the creek alone amounts to 2,000 ounces, or about $32,000, or close upon a million a month! Enormous as this sum may appear, and undoubtedly is for the production of one creek alone, it is [illegible] when due allowance is made for the heavy outlay and expenses attending the working of the claims. Assuming the number of men on the creek to be 1,600—which is perhaps not far from the mark—the rateable proportion per man would only amount to $20 per day, without taking the working charges and assessments into consideration which would probably reduce it nearly one half.—Victoria Chronicle.

COMMON COUNCIL met last evening. Present Lucas, Dodge, Knott, Saxer and Monnastes. The President being absent, Councillor Lucas was elected President, pro tem.

The petition of Doscher & Blackiston to retail liquor was granted.

The petitions of A Harker and J B Price to use one half the street opposite their premises, for building purposes, were granted.

The petition of T L Watson to use the street for removing a building was granted.

The committee to whom was referred the selection of a design for a city seal, reported sundry designs without recommendation. Report received.

On motion the complaint of T C Walters against the City of Portland was read, and referred to the committee on fire and water and City Attorney with instructions to report at the next meeting.

The following bills were ordered paid: For moving street lamps, Charles Barrett, stationery, $26 75, R Pittock, rent of engine house, $30. Milwain & Morse, sundries for jail, $3 75, W B Clark, attending Council, cleaning room and sundries, $34 75, Gas Light Company, gas for Council chamber one month, $8 35.

The following bills were referred to appropriate committees: J F McCoy, $32 80, D. Wright, Street Commissioner, $82 50, City Marshal, $74.

Bill of the Gas Light Company, for street lamps $190, read and laid on the table with [illegible] motion. Resolution to pay $40 instead of $190 for seven days time instead of one month, lost by a tie vote.

Ordinances authorizing the improvement of Jefferson street, and specifying the manner of planking and laying sidewalks on the same, were passed.

A special committee was appointed to procure a city press and seal.

IN CAMP.—Company "A," 1st Brigade Oregon Militia, Capt Wm Powell commanding, are now encamped on John Powell's farm, some six miles east of Portland, where they are undergoing daily drills preparatory to their visit to the State Fair. The company consists mostly of farmers of this county, and we hope their efforts may be crowned with success, and that they may bring home the first prize offered.

RECOVERED.—Camp & Co succeeded yesterday morning in recovering their harness and dray from the river, which was lost on Tuesday evening.

ARMS RECEIVED.—The Governor yesterday received the rifled muskets and accoutrements, from the State Armory at Salem, intended for the military companies lately organized in this city.

GOLD DUST.—Wells, Fargo & Co received about seventy five pounds of gold dust, by the steamer Julia, last evening.

OREGON CONGREGATIONAL ASSOCIATION.—We mention, by request, that the Oregon Association of Congregational ministers and churches, commences its annual session in this city to-day, at the Rev Mr Atkinson's church.

There will be public services and preaching each evening, to which general attendance is invited.

POSTAL RECIPROCITY.—Yesterday Henry Baker, Esq, special agent of the United States, accompanied by Allan Francis, Esq, U. S Consul, had an interview with His Excellency the Governor, on the subject of establishing a reciprocity in our postal connections with the States on the Pacific. As far as we understand it is Mr Baker's object to effect an arrangement with our government to extend to San Francisco, Portland, and ports on Puget Sound similar to the existing regulations between Canada and the States, whereby all mail matter, upon payment of the prescribed rates of postage, will be forwarded to its destination without entailing the necessity of accounts being kept between the different post offices. The expense of the mail service to be equally borne by the two governments. The deputation was courteously received by Governor Douglas.—Colonist.

FROM BEAVER HEAD.—From a gentleman just in from the above country we learn that the miners in that district are doing as well as could be expected under the circumstances, water being very scarce. A number of prospecting parties are out in every direction, and our informant thinks other diggings will be discovered this fall fully as rich or richer than any yet found. A large party was organizing for the purpose of going to Yellowstone river, some 280 miles in a North east [illegible] direction from Beaver Head to prospect. It is thought rich and extensive diggings will be found on that stream, as previous parties who have prospected there but who were unable to remain on account of the hostility of the Crow Indians state that they got good prospects on that stream and its tributaries. Another party had gone to the head waters of Snake river to prospect and felt sanguine of striking something big. Provisions were not high considering the distance of transportation. Flour was worth only $20 per hundred, and other things in proportion.—Gold Age.

THE FITTING OUT OF REBEL PRIVATEERS.—The Washington correspondent of the Springfield Republican says "that Seward is deeply engaged in a controversy with Lord John Russell respecting the fitting out of rebel privateers in English ports. There is a possibility of trouble on this question, for Seward has at length taken a bold stand—the very stand that Welles urged upon the President last winter."

The New York Herald's Harrisburg correspondent states that one man sold water at six cents per glass to the New York troops who went there to defend his city, while another charged a dollar each for tallow candles!

Going up Washington street the other night a well dressed individual something the worse for beer, suddenly disappeared headformost down a cellarway. Our anxiety concerning his neck was considerably relieved on seeing him emerge from the basement, and stagger to the nearest lamp post, where, instead of looking for bruises, he commenced a critical examination of his apparel. We could not control our laughter, when fully satisfied on this point, he sang, or rather shouted the following impromptu couplet—

Bless the man that puts the stitches,
In Heaven, Hastings' [illegible] breeches.

We regret to add that he was politely invited to the City Hall.—Ed.

Debility and Pain in Side and Breast.

Dayton, Ohio, June 5, 1858.

Messrs. A. L. Scovill & Co.—Gents: My wife has been troubled with Debility, and has had a constant Pain in her Side, and at times, a Pain in her Breast, which was procured from sewing. I bought a box of DR. MOTT'S LIVER PILLS, and since she has been using them she has entirely recovered her strength, and the pain has left her. I have used them also myself, and find them a most valuable family medicine.

Truly yours, JOSEPH PATTERSON.

All other houses that take goods on storage are wooden buildings and in exposed parts of the town, liable to the risk of fire. In Every Age of the World, the professions have been slow to admit the value of new discoveries, or the expediency of adopting them in practice. It is not to the legal profession that we look for reforms in jurisprudence, neither do we find the advocates of medical reform among physicians. Each departure whatever, is found to innovate upon received opinions and established usage. Hence the opposition which medical men too often exhibit to the use of private remedies, whatever their acknowledged value, or great efficiency in the cure of disease. No medicine has ever done more for the relief of human suffering than DR. OSGOOD'S INDIA CHOLAGOGUE. The certainty with which it cures Fever and Ague, and eradicates bile from the system is acknowledged by all. Do you prefer a speedy and effectual cure to a regular and scientific run of disease? Try the Cholagogue, and the object is accomplished. Then tell your suffering neighbor what it has done for you, that it may do the same for him.

Odds and Ends.

Never own that your wife is right; do it once, and, on the conceit of it, she will be wrong the rest of her life

Prentice says that Meade and Grant are unsurpassed as financiers They raised the value of green-backs in the New York market eleven per cent in two days

One comfortable little item which North Carolina loses by her secession proclivities, is the sale of pitch pine kindlings to New York, which was worth a million of dollars a year

The horse "warranted to stand without tying," which a man bought at a sale the other day, is now offered to be sold with the additional guarantee that "he will not move without whipping"

We can judge what a queer appearance the rebel armies in Dixie will soon make, when we consider that breeches there cost fifty dollars a pair Only the field officers will be able to indulge in the luxury of that aristocratic garment

A down easter sold another man a horse for a certain number of sheep, to be delivered such a day They came promptly but to the purchaser's astonishment, all nicely sheared! It was a cool transaction—for the sheep

It was a Yankee love letter in which the writer said, "How I wish, my dear Adeline, my engagements would permit me to leave town and go to see you It would be like visiting some old ruin, hallowed by time and fraught with a thousand pleasant recollections."

A Louisville paper has some answers to correspondents, among which this is one

Jenny—Ministers are not more addicted to dissipation than men of other professions A few of the Kalloch type take gin toddies and liberties with females, but the great majority of them are about as good as doctors and lawyers If you want a true Christian, marry an editor

A very small juvenile was lately at his mother's knee, saying his prayers, commencing "Our Father," etc His fond parent asked him to learn that little child's prayer, "Now I lay me down to sleep" After many ineffectual attempts to learn the verse, the little man drew himself up with some dignity and said: "Look here, ma, I ain't much on lay me down to sleep but just put me on Our Father, and I can't be beat!"

"Adopted Citizens" Read the Following —It is from the Southern Literary Messenger, the highest of rebel authority. It shows in what estimation you are held by the Confederate slave breeders, to whom the traitor Democracy would make you hewers of wood and drawers of water Read!

When the struggle for independence is finished, the door of our Janus closed in token of the termination of the bloody strife, and the laurels of victory entwine the brow of the youthful Confederacy, no foreigner who comes among us should ever enjoy the elective franchise. If we cannot check the spread over our territory of that spawn of ignorance and crime which flows in endless issue from the prisons and dens of corruption in the marts of Europe, we can at least shut out its cankering effects from the vitals of our body politic

The Virtues of Borax —The washerwomen of Holland and Belgium, who get their linen so beautifully white, use refined borax as a washing powder instead of soda, in the proportion of a large handful of borax powder to about ten gallons of boiling water; they save in soap nearly half. All the large washing establishments adopt the same mode. For laces, cambrics, etc, an extra quantity of the powder is used, and for crinolines (required to be made very stiff,) a strong solution is necessary. Borax, being a semi neutral salt, it does not in the slightest degree injure the texture of the finest linen; its effect is to soften the hardest water, and, therefore, it should be kept on every toilet table

A Candid Admission —The other day, in our Superior Court, a youthful son of Themis was declaiming to their Honors with great earnestness, in a case in which the paternity of "a pledge" was in dispute. The counsellor was very severe upon the erring mother, who had been telling tales on young Blackstone's client In order to show the case in which such a charge could be preferred, the orator, in his most vehement manner exclaimed.

"What chance is there for any of us? Suppose any woman at all was to come into my office with a child, and say, 'This is your child.' What could I say? I could not deny it"

The court took the matter under advisement.

Sympathy with Valandigham —The Lounger, in Harper's Weekly, has a scorching comment on the speeches of Seymour and other politicians in New York on the Fourth of July "These orators," he says, "forget the soldiers who are dying for the rights of all the people, in their eagerness to howl over the wrongs of a man summarily arrested for helping the murder of those soldiers."

Brief Biography —Hon Thomas H Benton could see through such men as Jeff Davis Here is his estimate of that leading rebel, expressed thirty years ago "He is a martinet, puffed up with West Point science, dogmatical, pragmatical, within his circle, but his circle is a narrow one, and he moves uncontrolled within it. He is an avowed secessionist"

A Copperhead Story —A French Canadian in Waterville (Me.), wishing to express his contempt for a man with whom he had a difficulty by calling him a Copperhead, and not being able to think of the name said "You [illegible] old one cent!" A correspondent of the Louisville Journal says this expresses about the value of a Copperhead.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Colds, Coughs, and Hoarseness.

BRIMFIELD Mass 20th Dec, 1855.

Dr. J. C. AYER I do not hesitate to say the best remedy I have ever found for Coughs, Hoarseness Influenza and the concomitant symptoms of a Cold, is your CHERRY PECTORAL Its constant use in my practice and my family for the last ten years has shown it to possess superior virtues for the treatment of these complaints EBEN KNIGHT, M.D.

A B MORTLEY, Esq of UTICA, N. Y., writes: I have used your PECTORAL myself and in my family ever since you invented it and believe it the best medicine for its purpose ever put out. With a bad cold I should sooner pay twenty-five dollars for a bottle than do without it, or take any other remedy.

Croup, Whooping Cough, and Influenza.

SPRINGFIELD, Miss., [illegible]

BROTHER AYER I will cheerfully certify your PECTORAL is the best remedy we possess for the cure of Whooping Cough, Croup, and the chest diseases of children. We of your fraternity in the South appreciate your skill and commend your medicine to our people. HIRAM CONKLIN, M.D.

AMOS LEE, Esq MONTEREY, IA., writes, 3d Jan., 1856: I had a tedious Influenza which confined me in doors six weeks; took many medicines without relief; finally tried your PECTORAL by the advice of our clergyman. The first dose relieved the soreness in my throat and lungs; less than one half the bottle made me completely well. Your medicines are the cheapest as well as the best we can buy, and we esteem you, Doctor, and your remedies as the poor man's friend.

Asthma or Phthisic, and Bronchitis.

WEST MANCHESTER, PA., [illegible]

SIR: Your CHERRY PECTORAL is performing marvellous cures in this section. It has relieved several from alarming symptoms of consumption, and is now curing a man who has labored under an affection of the lungs for the last forty years.

HENRY L. PARKS, Merchant.

A. A. RAMSEY, M.D., ALBION, MONROE Co., IOWA, writes, Sept. 6, 1855: "During my practice of many years I have found nothing equal to your CHERRY PECTORAL for giving ease and relief to consumptive patients, or curing such as are curable."

We might add volumes of [illegible] but the most convincing proof of the virtues of this [illegible] is found in its effects upon trial.

Consumption.

Probably no one remedy [illegible] [illegible] many and such dangerous cases [illegible] this. [illegible] can reach, but even to the [illegible] lief and comfort.

ASTOR HOUSE, NEW YORK CITY, [illegible]

DOCTOR AYER, LOWELL: I feel it a duty and a pleasure to inform you what your CHERRY PECTORAL has done for my wife. She had been five months laboring under the dangerous symptoms of Consumption, from which no aid we could procure gave her much relief. She was steadily failing, until Dr. Strong, of this city, where we have come for advice, recommended a trial of your medicine. We bless his kindness, as we do your skill, for she has recovered from that day. She is not yet as strong as she used to be, but is free from her cough, and calls herself well.

Yours, with gratitude and regard,

ORLANDO SHELBY, of SHELBYVILLE.

Consumptives, do not despair till you have tried AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. It is made by one of the best medical chemists in the world, and its cures all round us bespeak the high merits of its virtues.—Philadelphia Ledger.
